

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Lord HARDWICK, &c.
Lord High Chancellor
AND
LORD KEEPER of the GREAT SEAL;
One of His MAJESTY'S most honourable Privy-Council, &c.

My LORD,

I Beg Leave to lay before your LORDSHIP these Papers, which contain an Account of a small Preferment in your LORDSHIP'S Gift.

As

~~As your LORDSHIP is to be Judge~~ of the Merit of the Person who applies for a Nomination thereto, the Trust cannot be deposited in better Hands.

Your great Abilities, equal to the Importance of the Charge, assiduous Application to the Dispatch of Business, and strict Observance of Justice and Equity, in every Thing that is brought before your LORD-SHIP, make it a national Happiness, that your LORDSHIP fills that honourable Post, in which you are, so deservedly and so beneficially to the Nation, placed.

BUT more particularly happy is it for the Church of England, that it has such a Patron to fill up a considerable Number of Vacancies therein. By carefully enquiring into the Characters

Characters of those who apply to your Lordship for Ecclesiastical Preference, as you prevent unworthy Persons getting into those Benefices, in the Disposal of which your LORDSHIP is any way concerned, so likewise the Value of the Favours, you confer, is thereby enhanced ; it being a Credit, and a great Addition to a good Character, to have been preferred by so judicious and discerning a Patron as Your LORDSHIP.

As the Affair which is the Subject of the following short History, was some Time ago before your Lordship, you are, My LORD, better acquainted with some Particulars relating thereto, than I can possibly be after the most diligent Enquiry ; if I have made any Mistake, or am guilty of any Error, I hope for

A N Attempt to clear the Affair here treated of, from that Darknefs and Uncertainty with which it has been covered over, if it deserves no Commendation, will, I hope, escape Censure. Something of this Kind seems to have been wanting and necessary : because all our Antiquaries, who have mentioned it, have either given a false or imperfect Account thereof ; which shews that they were Strangers to the true History of it.

An expensive Enquiry might have discovered some more Particulars relating to my Lord Sandes's Foundation ; but such Enquiry would have been but of little Use : because that Society having been regularly dissolved by Act of Parliament, and the Estate

Estate for many Years in the Hands of the Crown, the Brotherhood that had their Majesties King Philip and Queen Mary for their Founders, (tho' they had the same Estate granted to them, that the other enjoyed) was a Body as distinct from t' other, as if the Endowment of each had been different Estates. And all Statutes, Rules, or Orders made by Lord Sandes and the Bishop of Winchester, by Virtue of the Licence granted to them by King Henry VIII, were unobligatory to the Body constituted by the Charter of King Philip and Queen Mary.

I beg Leave to detain my Reader, while I give a short Account of the following Collection, who will possibly think some Parts of it deficient, others superfluous.

I. As I proposed only giving the History of the Fraternity of the Holy Ghost at Basingstoke in Hants, what is said of the Hospital, in the first Section, was unnecessary: But as the latter seems to have been sometimes taken for the former, inserting it was not quite foreign to my Purpose.

2. The Account of the Founder's Family will perhaps be thought to be too particular : which was there given in that manner, because not long since (as I have been told) some Descendents of the Founder thought themselves to have a Property in the Chapel built by Lord Sandes. But all Right and Property of that Family in the Chapel, and Estate belonging to it, was taken away by Stat. 1 Edw. VI. cap. 14.

3. Those Parts of Sir James Dean's and Sir James Lancaster's Will, printed in the Appendix, concerning the Divinity Lecture founded by those two Gentlemen at Basingstoke, as they have no Relation to Holy Ghost Chapel, would have been omitted, but that they are so interwoven with their Benefactions to Holy Ghost Chapel, that it was scarce practicable to separate them.

them. Some, who have never seen Sir James Lancaster's Will, have asserted, that his Exhibitions to Scholars in the Universities were given to Boys educated in the School kept in Holy Ghost Chapel. That Part of Sir James Lancaster's Will is printed in the Appendix, that such Persons may have an Opportunity to undeceive themselves.

Lastly, It may be objected that the Account of the Petition to his present Majesty is too short: but as no Alteration hath thereby been made, and Things still remaining as they were before, a more particular Account was not needful.

What I have here said may, I believe, be depended on, as I have inserted nothing but what I thought I had proper Authority for. This History might have been swelled with traditional Accounts, but as the Truth of them might be doubted of, no Notice is therefore taken of them.

PRerogative-Office, London. Sir James Dean's Will was proved June 13; 1608. Upon a careful Perusal of Sir J. D's Will in this Office, I don't find that the printed Extract any where differs from it, except in the Manner of spelling some Words, as Times for Tymes, been for bin, &c. And in pag. 35. l. 25. read Masters.

In Sir J. L's Will, pag. 38. l. 10. from the Bottom read Wardens, Lecturer and the Bailiffs. In pag. 40. l. 4. from the Bottom, read which shall study. In pag. 41. l. 14. read Discretions. THE
BROTHERHOOD OF GUILD
HOLY GHOST, IN THE Chapel of the Holy Ghost
NEAR
Basingstoke in Hampshire, &c.

SECTION I.

Some mistaken Notions concerning the Antiquity of Holy Ghost Chapel, near Basingstoke in Hampshire, rectified; with an Account of a Religious House at Basingstoke, founded by King Henry III.

THE Brotherhood or Guild of the Holy Ghost, and the Chapel dedicated to the Holy Ghost, near the Town of Basingstoke, in the County of Southampton, and Diocese of Winchester, are not so ancient, as they are commonly supposed to be. The Tradition, that seven Saxon Kings have been at worship in this Chapel at one Time, is without Foundation. And the traditionary Accounts likewise of Pilgrimages made to this Place are equally ill grounded: The Chapel of the Holy Ghost near Basingstoke having been built so late as the Reign of King Henry VIII. viz. the Reign wherein the Reformation began.
B commonly

WINCHESTER had Bishops in the Time of the Saxon Heptarchy; and as the Site of Holy Ghost Chapel has been an ancient Burying-Place, 'tis not impossible, but that there might have been a Place of publick Worship there, before the building of that Chapel. But I have met with no Account of any such Thing.

THERE was indeed a Religious House at Basingstoke, of much greater Antiquity than Holy Ghost Chapel. This House was founded by King Henry III. some Time before the Year 1268. It was call'd an Hospital for the Maintenance of the Ministers of the Altar of Cbrist, and was built and endowed for the Support of Clerks who were grown weak and infirm; and consequently past discharging the Offices of their Function. The great Number of Persons then in Holy Orders, made Provisions of this Kind; at that Time, necessary. The Members of this House were call'd Brethren of the Hospital; over whom a single Person presided as their Head or Governor. They had a Chantry or Chapel wherein divine Service was celebrated, which was exempt from Episcopal Jurisdiction. The following Inhibition of the Royal Founder to the Official of Winton', relating to the Affair last mentioned, will give some Satisfaction to the Curious.

R E X Magistro N. de Rotland, Officiali Winton' Salutem. Cum ex Privilegio Regibus Angliæ, Præde-

Prædecessoribus nostris, & Nobis in ipsis a primâ Institutione Christianæ Religionis concessio, liberæ semper Cantariæ in singulis Domibus & nostræ Fundationis & maxime in propriis Dominicis nostris hætenus habitæ sunt & obtentæ: Ac Nos in Hospitali nostro de Basingstoke, quod in proprio Dominico nostro ad Sustainementum Ministrorum Altaris Christi ad Imbecillitatem vergentium fundavimus, Auctoritate nihilominus venerabilis Patris O. S. Adriani Diaconi Cardinalis, Apostolicæ Sedis Legati, interveniente, divina, prout convenit, fecerimus & mandavimus celebrari; dilectionem vestram rogamus, ne Custodibus vel Fratribus Hospitalis prædicti, super eorum Cantariâ prædictâ, Molestiam aut Impedimentum inferatis vel procuretis inferri. Vobis insuper prohibemus, ne sicut Honorem nostrum & Coronæ nostræ & nostræ conservare tenemini, ipsos contra Privilegium nostrum prædictum in placitum inde trahere præsumatis.

*Æ. Rege apud Wodestoke VIII die Julii. Claus.
52 Hen. III,*

THIS Hospital stood on the North Side of the River, a little below Basingstoke Town-Bridge. Some Remains of the Building are still to be seen, which now make a Part of the House inhabited by E. Dod. The Site at present belongs to Merton-College in Oxford: And without doubt the Estate of that College at Basingstoke was formerly the Endowment of this Hospital.

S E C T. II.

Of the Erecting of the Brotherhood or Guild of the Holy Ghost, and building of Holy Ghost Chapel near Basingstoke in Hants; its Endowment; and the History thereof to the present Time.

HOW great the Number of Chuntries and Free-Chapels was before the Reformation, and for what Uses they were built and endow'd, is well known to those, who are acquainted with the History of Ecclesiastical Affairs before that Period.

chester, in the former Part of the Reign of Henry VIII, obtain'd the King's Licence to found a Free-Chapel at Basingstoke in Hampshire, and therein to erect and establish a Guild; who, in pursuance of the Power to them given by his Majesty's Licence, built a Chapel near the Town of Basingstoke, and dedicated it to the Holy Ghost. And establish'd therein a Guild, by the Name of The Brotherhood or Guild of the HOLY GHOST, which was by a perpetual Succession to continue for ever. To the Brotherhood or Guild an Estate was given to maintain a Priest to perform divine Offices in the Chapel, and therein likewise to instruct Youth in Literature.

THIS Foundation, tho' intended to be perpetual, was yet but of short continuance: For the lesser Monasteries and Religious Houses having been dissolved by Stat. 27 Hen. VIII. cap. 28, and the Crown in possession of the Estates and Revenues of most of the greater Monasteries by virtue of Stat. 31 Hen. VIII. cap. 13, those who had founded Chuntries, Free-Chapels, &c. expecting that these would soon undergo the same Fate, began to enter upon, and to take Possession of the Estates given to them: And others, who had no such Title, got into their Hands Estates given to Religious Uses, by Grants and Conveyances made by those that were in possession. This occasioned a Bill to be brought into Parliament, which passed into a Law, and is to the following Effect:

“ endowed it with an E- “ state for the Maintenance “ of a President, twenty- “ nine Fellows, ten Scho- “ lars, and other Officers, “ as also two Schools for “ the Education of Chil-	“ dren at Taunton and “ Grantham. Stat.

Stat. 37 Hen. VIII. cap. 4. A Bill for Colledges, Chaunteries, &c. In their most humble wise shewen unto your Royal Majesty your loving Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons of this present Parliament assembled, that where there have been divers Colledges, Free-Chappels, Chantries, Hospitals, Fraternities, Brotherhoods, Guilds, and stipendary Priests, having Perpetuity for ever within this your Realm of ENGLAND, WALES, and the Marches of the same; of which, some of them by the Licence of your gracious Highness, or of your noble Progenitors, and some of them by Feofments and Wills thereupon declared, and some of them by other Devises, Conveyance and Assurance, have been incorporated, established, founded, erected, had or made by divers Names, Sur-Names, Degrees, and Corporations, to have had a perpetual Continuance for ever: Sithence which Time divers and many of the Donors, Founders; or Patrons, or such as pretend to be Donors, Founders, or Patrons of the same Colledges, Free-Chappels, Chantries, Hospitals, Fraternities, Brotherhoods, Guilds, and stipendary Priests, and divers other of their avaricious and covetous Minds, and of their own Authority, without your gracious Licence, have of late enter'd into the Mansion-houses, Manors, Lands, Tenements, and other Hereditaments, to the same Colledges, Free-Chappels, Chantries, Hospitals, Fraternities, Brotherhoods, Guilds, and stipendary Priests belonging and appertaining, and have expelled the Priests, Wardens, Masters, Ministers, Rulers, Governours, and Incumbents of the same, out and from the Possession thereof, and they, their Heirs, and Assigns, do occupy and enjoy the said Mansion-houses, Manors, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, and do receive, take and employ, and convert the Rents, Issues, Revenues, and Profits of the same to their own proper Uses: And some of the said Priests, Wardens, Masters,

Masters, Ministers, Rulers, Governours and Incumbents of the Premisses, by Covin between them and the Patrons, Donors, or Founders of the same, or of such as pretend to be Patrons, Donors, or Founders of the same, or other, have also of their own Authority, without your Grace's Licence, bargain'd and sold all, or Part of their Manors, Lands, and Tenements annexed, united, pertaining or belonging to their said Colledges, Free-Chappels, Chantries, Hospitals, and other the said Promotions: And some of the said Priests, Wardens, Masters, Ministers, Rulers, Governours, and Incumbents, by the Assent and Consent of their Patrons, Donors, Founders, or such other as have had Interest in the same: And some of the said Priests, Rulers, Governours and Incumbents, of their own Authority, without the Assent of their Patrons, Donors, or Founders, or of such other as have had Interest in the same, have now of late made Leases for Term of Life or Lives, or for Term of Years of their said Free-Chappels, Chantries, Hospitals, Fraternities, Brotherhoods, Guilds, or other the said Promotions, or of the Manors, Lands, Tenements, and other the Premisses, or of Part thereof, and have not reserved the customable Rent and Farm, that the same hath been used to be letten for: And some of them by Covin have suffered Recoveries, levied Fines, and made Feoffments, and other Conveyances of all or part of their said Possessions, by reason whereof divers of the said Free-Chappels, Chantries, Hospitals, and other Promotions aforesaid, have been clearly dissolved, extinct, or determined, contrary to the Wills, Minds, Intents and Purposes of the Founders, Donors, or Patrons of the same, and to the great Contempt of your Majesty, and your Authority Royal. — — —

2. Be it enacted by the King our Sovereign Lord, with the Assent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and

and of the Commons, &c. That all and singular the said Colledges, Free-Chappels, Chantries, Hospitals, Fraternities, Brotherhoods, Guilds, and other the said Promotions had, or made to have Continuance in perpetuity for ever, and being, or that hath or ought to be contributory or chargeable to the Payment of the First-Fruits and Tenths, according to the Laws and Statutes in that Behalf had and made, by what Name, Surname, Degree, or Corporation they or any of them were founded, ordain'd, establish'd, erected, named, call'd, or known, and all and singular the Mansion-houses, Manors, Orchards, Gardens, Lands, Tenements, Pastures, Woods, Waters, Rents, Reversions, Services, Commons, Tithes, Pensions, Portions, Churches, Chappels, Advowsons, Nominations, Patronages, Annuities, &c. and other Hereditaments whatsoever they be, appertaining or belonging, or that did appertain or belong, or were assigned or appointed to any such Colledge, Free-Chappel, Chantry, Hospital, Fraternity, Brotherhood, Guild, Stipendary Priest, or other the said Promotions, or to any of them, or accepted, known, or taken in Part, Parcel, or Number of them, or of any of them, and to the said Colledges, Chantries, Free-Chappels, Hospitals, Fraternity, Brotherhood, &c. or to any of them united or annexed, which between the fourth Day of February in the twenty-seventh Year of the Reign of our said Sovereign Lord the King, and the twenty-fifth Day of December in the thirty-seventh Year of the said King's Reign, by reason of any such Entry, Expulsion, Bargain, Sale, Feoffment, Fine, Recovery, Lease, or other Conveyance thereof had or made, been dissolved, determined, relinquished, or extincted by any of the Ways, Means, or Conveyances aforesaid, or otherwise, other than such of them as now be, or were in the Possession of our said Sovereign Lord the King, or that have been granted or assured by his Highness Licence,

Agree-

Agreement, Consent, or Letters Patents, to any other Person or Persons, or have been lawfully obtain'd, or recovered by any Person, by any former Right or Title, without Fraud or Covin, or by the King's Licence, shall from henceforth (by Authority of this Act) be adjudged and deemed, and also be in the very actual and real Possession and Seisin of the King our Sovereign Lord, and of his Heirs and Successors for ever, in as large and ample Manner as the said Priests, Wardens, Masters, Ministers, Governors, Rulers, or other Incumbents, or any of them, or the Patrons, Donors, or Founders of them, or of any of them, at any Time sithe the said fourth Day of February in the twenty-seventh Year aforesaid, had, occupied or enjoyed, or now hath, occupieth or enjoyeth the same, and as tho' all and singular the said Colledges, Chantries, Hospitals, Free-Chappels, Fraternities, Brotherhoods, Guilds, and other the said Promotions, and the said Manors, Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, and other the Premisses, whatsoever they be, and every of them, were in this present Act specially, particularly and certainly rehearsed, named and expressed by express Words, Names, Surnames, Corporations, Title, and Faculties, and in their Natures, Kinds, and Qualities, the said Entries, Expulsions, Bargains, Sales, Fines, Feoffments, Recoveries, or other Assurance and Conveyance whatsoever they be, had or made (except before excepted) to the contrary notwithstanding.

THE Fraternity or Guild of the Holy Ghost, within the Chapel of the Holy Ghost, near Basingstoke in Hants, escaped Dissolution at this Time; tho' it seems to have been within the Meaning of this Act (for if it was omitted in the original or first Certificate of Benefices and spiritual Promotions made in the Exchequer by the Commissioners; yet by 32 Hen. VIII. cap. 22. it was liable to be charged ged to the Payment of First-Fruits and Tenths) except only, that it does not appear, that any Entry had been made upon the Estate by the Founder or any other Person. Yet by this Act the King might, during his natural Life, grant his Commission to such Persons, as he thought fit, to enter into any Chantries, Free-Chapels, &c. and seize their Estates, and take them to his own Use.

BUT King Hen. VIII. did not live long after the making of this Statute, it being made in the last Year of his Reign. And, in the first Year of the Reign of his Successor King Edw. VI. an Act was made, whereby free Chapels, and Chantries, &c. of all Sorts, and the Estates belonging to them, were given to the King.

STAT. I Edw. VI. cap. 14. sect. 2. It is now ordained and enacted by the King our Sovereign Lord, with the Assent of the Lords and Commons, &c. That all manner of Colledges, Free-Chappels, and Chantries, having being, or in ESSE, within five Years next before the first Day of this present Parliament, (which were not in actual and real Possession of the late King, nor in the actual and real Possession of the King our Sovereign Lord that now is, nor excepted in the said former Act [viz. Stat. 37 Hen. VIII. cap. 4.] other than such as by the King's Commissions in form hereafter mentioned, shall be altered, transposed or changed) and all Manors, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Tithes, Pensions, Portions, and other Hereditaments and Things abovementioned, belonging to them or any of them: And also all Manors, Lands, Tenements, Rents, and other Hereditaments and Things abovementioned, by any Manner of Assurance, Conveyance, Will, Devise, or otherwise had, made, suffered, knowledged or declared, given, assigned, limited or appointed, to the

9. AND furthermore be it ordain'd and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the King our Sovereign Lord, shall from the said Feast of EASTER next coming, have and enjoy to him, his Heirs and Successors cessors for ever, all Fraternities, Brotherhoods and Guilds, being within the Realm of ENGLAND and WALES, and other the King's Dominions: And all Manors, Lands, Tenements, and other Hereditaments, belonging to them or any of them (other then Corporations, Guilds, Fraternities, Companies and Fellowships of Mysteries or Crafts, and the Manors, Lands, Tenements, and other Hereditaments pertaining to the said Corporations, &c.) and shall by Vertue of this Act be judged and deemed in the actual and real Possession of our said Sovereign Lord the King, his Heirs and Successors, from the said Feast of EASTER next coming, for ever, without any Inquisition or Office thereof to be had or found.

34. PROVIDED always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That this present Act, nor any Thing therein contain'd, shall in any wise extend or be prejudicial or hurtful to the general Corporation of any City, Borough or Town within this Realm, or any other the King's Dominions, ne shall extend to any the Lands, or Hereditaments of them or any of them, any thing therein contain'd to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

By this Act, the Brotherhood or Guild, call'd the Brotherhood of the Holy Ghost, within the Chapel dedicated to the Holy Ghost, near Basingstoke in Hants, founded by Bishop Fox and Lord Sandes was dissolved; and the 1546.
Estate belonging to it taken to the King's Use, which King Edward VI possessed until the End of his Reign, when with the Crown it came into the Hands of Queen Mary, and continued to be Crown Lands during the former Part of that Reign. But upon a Petition from the Inhabitants of the Town of Basingstoke to their Majesties King Philip and Queen Mary, and at the Request and Intercession of Cardinal Poole, 1556.
Legate

Legate de Latere of Pope Julius III, and Archbishop of Canterbury, their Majesties, by Letters Patents of the third and fourth Year of their Reign, establish'd again a Brotherhood or Guild to the Praise and Honour of the Holy Ghost, which was to continue for ever, and be called the Brotherhood of the Holy Ghost within the Chapel of the Holy Ghost, near the Town of Basingstoke, in the County of Southampton. By the same Letters Patents, a Body corporate and politick is constituted by the Name of the Alderman, Wardens, and Brethren, and Sisters of the Fraternity or Guild of the Holy Ghost, within the Chapel of the Holy Ghost near Basingstoke in Hants, to continue for ever by a perpetual Succession. The Alderman and two Wardens were annual Officers, chosen every Year out of the Brotherhood, and were removeable at Pleasure. This Body corporate consisted of an uncertain and indeterminate Number of Members, and that of either Men or Women : For Women, as well as Men, were capable of being of this Society : And the Alderman and Wardens of the Fraternity for the Time being, had Power to admit as many Persons of either Sex, as were willing, and they approved of, into their Community. The Business of the Fraternity was to be transacted under a Common Seal, which they are authorized to keep and use : And the Alderman and Wardens of the Brotherhood, for the Time being, are declared capable in Law to hold Lands, &c. and to sue and be sued in any Court of Law : Who, together with the Brethren of the Fraternity, might hold Meetings, and make, according to their Discretion, such Rules and Statutes, (consistent with the Laws of England) as were necessary for the better ordering and Government of their Fraternity or Guild, and of the Brethren and Sisters thereof, and their Successors.

To

To this Guild of the Holy Ghost, their Majesties granted an Estate in Lands and Houses, (viz. the same that did belong to the former Guild of that Name at Basingstoke) for the Maintenance of a Priest for the Celebration of divine Service in Holy Ghost Chapel, and for the Instruction and Institution of the young Men and Boys of the Town. The Grant runs thus :

“ KNOW ye, that, of our ample Grace, and of “ our certain Knowledge and mere Motion, We have “ given and granted, and do, by these Presents, for “ Us and our Heirs and Successors, grant to the Al“ derman and Wardens of the Brotherhood or Guild “ of the Holy Ghost, &c. all that our Messuage or “ Tenement and Farm call'd Frymles, otherwise “ call'd The Hollie Gosse Ferme, and one Yard

 “ Appurtenances, situate, lying, and being in Mote-

 “ Year of King Philip and Queen Mary] in the Te-

 “ the Hollie Gosse near the Town of Basingstoke

 “ longing and appertaining, and being Parcel of the “ Possessions thereof. And also all that our Horse-“ Mill, and one Yard of ours thereto belonging,

 “ said late Fraternity belonging and appertaining.

 “ Tenure or Occupation of William Hannington,

 " with the Appurtenances lying in the common Field of " Basingstoke call'd Northfield, now or lately in " the Tenure or Occupation of John Butler, and to " the said late Fraternity some Time ago belonging

 " nement of ours call'd Spicers, and one Garden of

 " call'd The Hollie Gasse Streete, oiberwise call'd
 " Whitewaye, in the Town of Basingstoke aforesaid,

 " ly belonging and appertaining. And all that our
 " Barn call'd The Hollie Gasse Barne in Basing-
 " stoke aforesaid, and one hundred Acres of Ara" ble Land of ours lying in the Common Fields of the " said Town of Basingstoke; and one small Close of " Land and Pasture of ours, containing by Estima" tion two Acres in Basingstoke aforesaid, with all
 " and singular their Appurtenances, now or lately in " to the said late Fraternity some Time belonging and " appertaining. And the Reversion, and Reversions

 " whatsoever, of all and singular the Premisses a" bove, by these Presents, granted, and of every " Part and Parcel thereof, &c. &c.

THIS Estate, granted to the Guild of the Holy Ghost near Basingstoke, being given for the Maintenance of a Priest, pro Divinarum celebratione, & pro Instructione & Institutione Juvenum & Puerorum; 'twas looked upon as not given to superstitious Uses; and therefore remain'd untouch'd in the following Reigns. But in the Time of the late Civil War (when other Church-Lands were seiz'd seiz'd upon) this Estate was again alienated; and the Chapel and School shut up for many Years: 'Till in the Year 1670.* by the Care of the Right Reverend George Morley, D. D. Bishop of Winchester, the Estate was restored to it again.

IF by Frymles or Holy Ghost Farm, in the first Article of the Grant, something is meant different from what is given in the following Articles, the Endowment was large: But perhaps those Words may be intended only as a general Description of what is, more particularly, described in the following Articles. However it is certain, that one hundred and five Acres of Land were granted by the Crown, beside the two Houses and Gardens in Basingstoke, one in Northbrook-Street, the other in Chapel-Street, and the Barn and Horse-Mill in Wote-Street.

THERE are now Lands in the Parish of Basingstoke (tho' the Guild has long been extinct) which are acknowledged to be the Estate of Holy Ghost Chapel; but whether so great a Quantity of Land as one hundred and five Acres can, at this Time, be found, I cannot say. The Messuage or Tenement call'd Harriard's in Northbrook-Street does still belong to the Chapel; but is in so ruinous a Condition, that it cannot stand long before it must be rebuilt. The Messuage or Tenement call'd Spicer's, in Chapel-Street, or The White Way, is the House wherein the Minister of the Chapel (as I have been told) hath formerly lived. The House, with the Offices, is near sixty Feet in Front: But it is so far out of Repair, that it is untenantable; one Part of the House is indeed inhabited by a poor Man with his Family, but the other is made use of by a Malster, to keep Wood in. The Barn and Horse-Mill in Wote-Street are in a like bad Condition. Hence it appears, how necessary it is for Patrons not to permit Intruders to enjoy any of their Benefices, even of the smallest Value ; it being for their Interest to let Things go to Ruin, and to diminish the Profits, that it may not be worth while to give them any Disturbance.

THE Chapel built by my Lord Sandes, and dedicated to the Holy Ghost, (whether most to be admired for the Beauty of the Structure, or the Pleasantness of its Situation, 'tis not easy to determine) was situated on a Hill near the Town of Basingstoke in Hants. The Outside of it was of Free-Stone curiously ornamented ; neither was the Inside less beautiful. “ Upon the Roof of it (as we are told by Mr. Camden) the History of the Prophets, Apostles, and Disciples of Christ, was very artificially described.” Mr. Camden's own Words are more full than the Translation :
 “ Sacellum perpulchrum . . . Spiritui Sancto “ sacratum. In cujus laquearibus Historia sacra “ cum Prophetarum, Apostolorum, & Discipulorum
 “ Christi iconibus præcellenti artificio depicta spectatur.

THIS Chapel (through neglect of the Repairs*) is now in Ruins. Part of the Eastern and South Wall only remains standing, and an Hexagonal Turret to the South-West, almost entire, which was formerly a Stair-Case. My Lord Sandes, the Founder, is said † to have been buried in this Chapel ; if there was ever any Monument erected

* It is said, that this Chapel was stripp'd of its Covering of Lead, in the late Civil-War, to make Ball for the Use of the Besiegers of Basing-House, which stood in the Neighbourhood of this Chapel. Others say, that the Chapel was tiled, and that they can remember when it was so.

(as probably there was) it is now buried in the Rubbish.

WESTWARD of, and adjoining to the Ruins of the Chapel stands a Building, (tho' in but indifferent Repair) consisting of one large regular Room about forty Feet in Length, and twenty-four in Breadth. This is the only Chapel and School-Room, that of late Years has been made use of. Since its first Endowment Holy Ghost Chapel has had several Benefactors, the most considerable of whom were Sir James Deane, Knt. and Sir James Lancaster, Knt. See their Benefactions in the APPENDIX.

S E C. T. III.

Of the Patronage of the Chapel of the Holy Ghost, near Basingstoke in Hampshire.

IT may be made a Question, whether the Patronage, or Right of nominating the Presbyter to perform Divine Service, &c. in Holy Ghost Chapel near Basingstoke, did not belong to the Crown, even when the Brotherhood or Guild of the Holy Ghost existed: There being no express Words in the Charter, or Letters Patents, granted Anno 3 & 4 Phil. & Mar. whereby a Right of Nomination is convey'd to them; except such Power is given them by these Words: Eâ Intentione [dedimus & concessimus] quod, cum Reventionibus eorundem Messuagiorum, Terrarum & Possessionum, & cæterorum Præmissorum, Aldermannus & Gardiani dictæ Fraternitatis, pro tempore existentes, imperpetuum invenient unum idoneum Presbyterum, tam pro Divinarum Celebratione in Capellâ prædictâ, quam pro Instructione & Institutione Juve-

num & Puerorum Villa prædictæ. “ We have “ given and granted them with that Intent, that,
 “ with the Rents and Issues of the same Mes“ suages, Lands, and Possessions, and other the “ Premisses, the Alderman, and Wardens of the “ Fraternity of the Holy Ghost for the Time be“ ing, shall for ever find [i. e. maintain] a fit“ ting Priest, as well for the Celebration of Di“ vine-Service in the Chapel of the Holy Ghost, “ as for the Instruction and Institution of Young-“ men and Boys, &c.” These Words seem rather to imply and direct, that the Produce of the Estate should be apply’d towards the Maintenance and Support of the Priest, than to relate to the Nomination of him. Which Sense of the Words is confirm’d by the Proviso that follows :

PROVISO semper, quod omnes Reventiones & Possessiones prædictæ Fraternitatis sive Gildæ non exponantur, nec expendantur ad aliquos alios usus seu Intentiones, sed ad inveniendum Presbyterum modo & formâ supradictis.

“ PROVIDED always, that the whole of the Re“ venues and Possessions of the Fraternity or “ Guild aforesaid, may not be employed or ex“ pended to any other Uses or Purposes, but “ to the finding [that is, maintaining *] a Priest “ in Manner and Form aforesaid.

BUT however as the Officers of the Guild did let the Estate, and received the Rents for the Use of their Chaplain, so it is not unlikely, but that they might appoint him, when a Vacancy happened. But when this Guild was extinct†, the

* In the Statute 1 Edw.
 VI. cap. 14, whereby Fraternities, Brotherhoods, and Guilds were dissolved, Find and Maintain are used as synonymous Words, for the Founders were for the most part Patrons.

† It is not easy to ascertain the Time when the Crown took the Patronage of the Chapel into its own Hands, and (the Value in the King's Books being nil) it was presented to, by the Lord Chancellor, or Lord-Keeper of the Great Seal; for it appears by the Books of the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal, that

“ THE Office or Place of Minister or Chaplain, as well for Celebration of Divine Service, as for the Instruction, Education, and Instituting Young-men and Boys in the Chapel of the Holy Ghost, near the Town of Basingstoke, in the County of Southampton, was granted by Letters Patents, bearing Date the first Day of February, An. 15 Car. unto Edward Webb, Clerk, Master of Arts, to hold the said Office, &c. during his natural Life, with all and singular Messuages, Tenements, &c. thereto belonging, &c. &c.

By the Lord Keeper, &c.

Witnessed at Westminster.

Fraternity of the Holy Ghost ceased to exist: As they were accountable for the whole Produce of the Estate, and nothing allowed to defray the Expence of their Meetings, they neglected to chuse annual Officers and new Members, and so the Guild was gradually extinct. It is however certain, that there is no such Body corporate now in being, neither has there been for many Years.

It is conjectured (and not unreasonably) that, as the Persons whereof the Guild consisted in the Reign of Queen Mary were Papists, there were no new Members admitted after her Death: For the Fraternity seems to have been extinct before the End of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, or at farthest in the Beginning of the Reign of King James I. Because Sir James Deane would scarcely, by his Will in the Year 1607, have pretended to give the Patronage of Holy Ghost Chapel to Trustees of his own Appointment, if there had been, then in being, a Body Corporate, whereunto it did belong. Vide APPENDIX.

SOME

SOME Time after this, the Estate was alienated, and the Chapel and School shut up for many Years, as is above related. After the Restitution of the Estate, by the Care of Bishop Morley in the Year 1670, one Poecock (if I am not misinformed) officiated for a little while. But the late Incumbent, the Reverend Mr. John James, was in possession in the Beginning of the Year 1673, who had never (as I can find) any Nomination or Grant of it from the Crown, but held it by such Title as the Corporation of the Town of Basingstoke could give him to it. Vid. APPEN. Num. IV. But knowing himself liable to be dispossessed, Things were suffered to run strangely to ruin.

SINCE the Accession of his present Majesty to the Throne, a Petition was presented to his Majesty in Council, wherein the Petitioners pray'd to be made Trustees and Patrons of Holy Ghost Chapel, and the School therein kept: But as no new Charter or Grant was at that Time made, Things remain still upon the same Footing, as they did by Virtue of the Letters Patents granted in the third and fourth Year of King Philip and Queen Mary,

NUMB. III.

An Extraēt of the Will of Sir James Deane, Knight, dated the 19th of August, Anno Domini 1607.

I Willing to mind, that many Times heretofore the Town of Basingstoke hath been, and at this Time is, destitute of some good and godly Preacher, to teach and instruct the People there in the Principles of Religion, and to lead their Lives according to the Laws and Commandments of Almighty God. And also remembring, that the Pension and Allowance that is given and allow'd to the School-Master that teacheth the Grammar-School in the Holy Ghost Chapel in Basingstoke, is too small to maintain a good School-Master there. Therefore, to the Intent and Purpose, that after my Decease for ever, a good and learned Preacher, and a Graduate in Divinity of one of the two Universities of Cambridge or Oxford, may there from Time to Time be had, and maintained for the Preaching of God's holy Word in the said Town of Basingstoke: And also that some good and learned Man, being a good Scholar, and a learned Grammarian, may be there also the better maintain'd to teach and instruct the Children and Youth of the said Town of Basingstoke, in their Grammar Rules, and other good Learning, I do give and bequeath to Sir Henry Wallopp, Knt. Sir Francis Palmes, Knt. Sir Richard Pawlett, Knt. Edward Savage, Esq; Henry Deane, Gent. William Moore, Clothier; William Henne, Dyer; William Parches, Dyer; John Hall, Clothier; William Blunden, Clothier; and and Richard Spier, Clothier; and to their Heirs for ever, one Annuity or yearly Rent of one and twenty Pounds of lawful Money of England, which I will shall be issuing and going out of my Manour or Farme of Ashe, with the Appurtenances, and to them or some of them, or their Assigns, yearly paid, in the Town-House of Basingstoke, commonly called the Motte-Hall, at two Feasts, or Terms of the Year, (viz.) at the Feast of the Birth of our Lord God; and the Nativity of Saint John Baptist, or within twenty Days next after either of the said Feasts, by even Portions: The first Payment thereof to be had, and made at such of the said Feasts, as shall first and next come and happen after my Decease, or within twenty Days then next ensuing; upon special Trust and Confidence, that the said Sir Henry Wallop, Sir Francis Palmes, Sir Richard Pawlett, Edward Savage, and other the Parties, to whom I have given and bequeathed the said Annuity of twenty and one Pounds, shall and will every Year, yearly for ever truly pay, or cause to be paid, at the said Motte-Hall, to such Person and Persons, that, for the Time being, shall be appointed Preachers and School-Master in the said Town of Basingstoke, by the Appointment, Assignment, or Nomination of such Person and Persons, as is hereafter limited, twenty Pounds of the said yearly Annuity or Sum of twenty and one Pounds; that is to say, to the Preacher ten Pounds thereof, and to the said School-Master other ten Pounds thereof, at the two Feasts, or Terms of the Year before limited for the Payment of the said Annuity, — or within twenty Days next after every of the same Feasts; the first Payment thereof to be had and made at such of the said Feasts as shall first and next happen after there shall be placed a Preacher and Schoolmaster in the said Town of Basingstoke, chosen, nominated, appointed, placed, or allowed of by such Person and Persons, as I do herein nominate and appoint, &c.

[The other Sum of twenty Shillings, Residue of this Annuity, is directed to be laid out in repairing a Causey in Basingstoke, between the Angel and the Church Gate, by the Appointment of the Bailiff of the Town for the Time being.]

And I will that — Sir James Lancaster, my Cousin, shall have the sole Nomination and placing of the said Preacher and Schoolmaster there to be placed from Time to Time, during his natural Life, and after his Decease, that then my said Feoffees before-named, and such other as hereafter they shall estate in the said Annuities hereby to them given, shall have the full and sole placing, nominating and appointing of the said Preacher and Schoolmaster there respectively for ever. —
 — — — — —

And whensoever the Persons aforesaid, to whom I have bequeathed any of the said several Annuities — shall so decease and leave this Life, that there shall not be above the Number of three of them living, to whom I have given any of the said several Annuities; then I Will and my Desire is, that the Survivors of them shall, by some sufficient Means in Law, convey and assure over to some other honest and discreet Persons of the several Hundreds and Parishes aforesaid respectively the said several Annuities, or yearly Rents, to hold to them and their Heirs, upon like Trust and Confidence, as I have above expressed, and to be convey'd from Feoffees to Feoffees for ever, to perform and fulfil the good Uses above expressed.

Sir James Deane, Knt. gave several other Annuities, beside this of 21 l. to the same Persons, in trust for Charitable Uses; but they have neglected to appoint their Successours, as the Will directs; yet the Annuities Annuities are still paid by the Proprietors of the Estate, out of which they are payable.

As Sir James Deane, was the Founder of the Lecture at Basingstoke, he had, without doubt, Power to appoint the Persons who should chuse the Lecturer or Preacher; but surely he had no Right to give away by his Will the Patronage of Holy Ghost Chapel and School, because he was a Benefactor to it.

Sir James Lancaster has again, by his Will, Anno 1618, pretended to dispose of the Right of Nomination, upon no more valuable Consideration, than that the Balliffs and Burgesles of Basingstoke may pay the Master forty Shillings; or four Pounds a Year, if they in their good Discretion shall think fit; or, if they please, nothing.

NUMB. IV.

An Extract of the Will of Sir James Lancaster, Knight, dated April 18, 1618. Proved June 1618.

SIR James Lancaster having granted and secured to Sir William Cockaine, and others, certain Estates at Maidenwell in Lincolnshire, and at Pamber, Hants, &c. in Trust, to the Intent, that the Rents, Issues and Profits, immediately upon the Receipt thereof, should be paid into the Hands of the Master, Wardens and Commonalty of the Mystery of Skinners, London, to be by them distributed and bestow'd according to the Direction of his Will, does in his Will devise and declare as follows :

“ Imprimis, I will, devise, appoint and declare, “ that the Master, Wardens and Commonalty of “ the Mystery of Skinners, and their Successors, “ Master, Wardens, and Commonalty of the said “ Society, for the Time being, shall yearly, and “ every Year, for ever, pay unto the Church-“ Wardens and Lecturer of the Bailiffs of the “ Town and Parish of Basingstoke in the County “ of Souhampton (where I was born) and to their “ Successors, out of the said Rents, Issues, and Pro“ fits of the said Mannour, Lands and Premises, “ one yearly Payment; or Sum of one Hundred “ and three Pounds, six Shillings and eight Pence;
 “ of lawful Money of England, to be by them
 “ the said Church-Wardens, Lecturer and Bailiffs “ paid and distributed in Manner and Form fol“ lowing

" lowing (that is to say) thirty Pounds, Part " thereof, in every Year yearly, at the End of " every several Week in the Year for ever,
 " by equal Portions, unto and amongst such
 " poor People of the Town of Basingstoke afore" said, as they in their Discretion shall think to " have most need of Relief, being People of ho" nest Report, and such as shall frequent to hear
 " the Lecture at Basingstoke afore said, at such " Time as the same shall be preached. And forty " Pounds more thereof to be paid yearly and eve" ry Year (together with one yearly Sum of ten
 " Pounds, lately given to that Intent by my Cou" sin Sir James Deane, Knight, deceased) for and
 " towards the Maintenance of an honest, suffi" cient and learned Preacher within the Town of " Basingstoke afore said, so long as such Parson
 " shall be, from Time to Time, the Preacher
 " there chosen and allowed by Sir Henry Wallop,
 " Knt. during his Life, and after his Decease, by " the said Bailiffs and Burgeses of Basingstoke, or " by whatsoever other Name the Corporation in " that Town be called. And also one yearly
 " Payment of twenty Pounds towards the Main" tenance of the Free-School in Basingstoke afore" said for ever, so long as the School-Master and
 " Usher there be, from Time to Time, chosen
 " and allowed by the said Bailiffs and Burgeses,
 " or by what other Name the Corporation of that " Town is call'd; and if any other shall be
 " there Preacher, or School-Master not chosen
 " and allowed by the said Sir Henry Wallop, or by " the Bailiffs and Burgeses, or the greater Part " thereof; then the said Master, Wardens and " Commonalty of the said Mystery of Skinners
 " shall have the said yearly Payment, to be em-
 " ploy'd by them in Works of Charity, accord" ing

“ to their Discretion; and out of the said Sum of “ twenty Pounds, there shall be yearly paid unto “ the Usher of the said School, for the Time “ being, the Sum of sixteen Pounds, of lawful “ Money of England; and the other four Pounds “ thereof shall be yearly paid either to the Ma“ ster, or Usher of the Free-School, or both of “ them, in the good Discretion of the said Bar-“ liffs and Burgeesses, for the Time being. And “ thirteen Pounds six Shillings and eight Pence “ more thereof, for the Maintenance of a Petty “ School-Master, to be chosen and allow’d as a“ foresaid, in Basingstoke aforesaid, who shall “ teach little Children to write and read, but “ especially to read and learn the Catechism of the “ Principles in Religion; and I will and appoint, “ that the Lecturer or Preacher of the Town of “ Basingstoke, for the Time being, shall once in “ in every Week come to the School, where the “ said Children shall be taught, and there appose “ some of them to see how they shall profit there“ in; and I will that the Scholars, both of the “ said Free-School, and of the petty School, “ be present at every Lecture, which shall be “ preached at Basingstoke aforesaid, whereby they “ may be the better instructed.

“ And I do further will, devise, and appoint,
 “ and declare, that the said Master, Wardens “ and Commonalty of the said Mystery of Skinner- “ ners shall, out of the rest of the Rents, Issues “ and Profits of the Mannours, Lands, Tene“ ments and Premises abovesaid, yearly, and “ every Year for ever, pay unto such three poor “ Scholars which study Divinity in the Universities “ of Oxford and Cambridge, or such of them as “ the said Master and Wardens for the Time “ being shall think good, to such poor Scholars.

“ (23)

“ (as they in their Discretion shall think to be, “ most worthy of the same, and as they shall “ think best to prefer thereunto) the Sum of forty “ and five Pounds of lawful Money of England “ (that is to say) to each of the said three “ poor Scholars, fifteen Pounds apiece per An- “ num; and that as any of the said three Scho“ lars shall be preferred to better Means of Liv“ ing, or shall depart from the University, the “ said Master, Wardens and Commonalty of the “ said Mystery, shall place and prefer such other “ Scholars studying Divinity to the Pensions a“ foresaid; as they shall think fitting in their good “ Directions.

— — — — —
 — — — — — “ And for the Oyerplus of my E“ state remaining, that is yet ungiven, my Fu“ neral Charges, and other Charges deducted, —
 “ I mean (if God give me Time to give Order
 “ for that under my Hand. But, if it please “ God, I be so suddenly taken, or that I give no “ other Order for that; I will, that this Course, “ herein taken, shall stand, and be of effect, as “ hereafter followeth: First, my Meaning and “ Will is, that my Executors, Mr. Joseph Jack- “ son, and Mr. Leonard Parker, do make a Pur“ chase either of Lands, or Houses in London, to “ the Value of thirty or forty Pounds a Year, and “ the same to be [made] over to the Corporation “ of Skinners, for the Use of these Things; viz.
 “ First for fifteen Pounds a Year, for ever, to be “ given to the Poor of Basingstoke, to make up “ the thirty Pounds aforegoing, the Sum of forty “ and five Pounds. And also, in as much as I “ have formerly given the Sum of forty and five “ Pounds a Year, for ever, towards the Mainte“ nance of three poor Scholars, to be preferr'd G “ by

“ by the Master, Wardens, and Commonalty of “ the Mystery of Skinners, I will, that there “ be given fifteen Pounds a Year, for ever, to be “ added to the other forty and five Pounds, to“ wards the making up of the Number of four “ poor Scholars, to be by them maintained.

The Bayliffs and Burgesses of the Town of Basing- stoke were, by Letters Patents, Anno 17^o Car. made a Body Corporate by the Name of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgessees of the Town of Basingstoke in the County of Southampton, which Name the Corporation of that Town now bears. As there was no
 Usherhip endowed, before Sir James Lancaster gave an Annuity for that Purpose the Corporation of Basingstoke may have a Right to appoint the Usher of the School. But the Crown has asserted its Right to the Patronage of Holy Ghost Chapel by presenting Mr. Webb, Anno 15^o Car. viz. 1639. There is no mention made of Holy Ghost Chapel in the Charter of the Corporation of Basingstoke granted two Years after this (i. e.)

Anno 17^o Car.
